52.229-11 Tax on Certain Foreign Procurements-Notice and Representation. (Deviation 2026-O0038) (Feb 2026)

TAX ON CERTAIN FOREIGN PROCUREMENTS-NOTICE AND REPRESENTATION (FEB 2026) (DEVIATION 2026-O0038)

(a) Definitions. As used in this provision-

Foreign person means any person other than a United States person.

Specified Federal procurement payment means any payment made pursuant to a contract with a foreign contracting party that is for goods, manufactured or produced, or services provided in a foreign country that is not a party to an international procurement agreement with the United States. For purposes of the prior sentence, a foreign country does not include an outlying area of the United States.

United States person as defined in 26 U.S.C. 7701(a)(30) means

(1) A citizen or resident of the United States;

(2) A domestic partnership;

(3) A domestic corporation;

(4) Any estate (other than a foreign estate, within the meaning of 26 U.S.C. 701(a)(31)); and

(5) Any trust if-

(i) A court within the United States is able to exercise primary supervision over the administration of the trust; and

(ii) One or more United States persons have the authority to control all substantial decisions of the trust.

(b) Unless exempted, there is a 2 percent tax of the amount of a specified Federal procurement payment on any foreign person receiving such payment. See 26 U.S.C. 5000C and its implementing regulations at 26 CFR 1.5000C-1 through 1.5000C-7.

(c) Exemptions from withholding under this provision are described at 26 CFR 1.5000C-1(d)(5) through (7). The Offeror may claim an exemption from the withholding by using the Department of the Treasury Internal Revenue Service (IRS) Form W-14, Certificate of Foreign Contracting Party Receiving Federal Procurement Payments, available at www.irs.gov/w14. Any exemption claimed and self-certified on the IRS Form W-14 is subject to audit by the IRS. Any disputes regarding the imposition and collection of the 26 U.S.C. 5000C tax are adjudicated by the IRS as the 26 U.S.C. 5000C tax is a tax matter, not a contract issue. The IRS Form W-14 is provided to the acquiring agency rather than to the IRS.

(d) For purposes of withholding under 26 U.S.C. 5000C, the Offeror represents that

(1) It ☐ is ☐ is not a foreign person; and

6.0 Volume IV--Price

6.1 Pricing Template

The quoter shall complete and submit the Government-provided pricing template.

Quoters shall enter pricing only in the designated in put cells. If a formula error or inconsistency is identified within the provided template or the Offeror's internal calculations, the Offeror is authorized to make the necessary corrections to ensure the accuracy and integrity of their proposed pricing. Additionally, While subcontractors are not required to submit separate price proposals, they may submit Total Compensation Plans directly to the Government to protect proprietary data from disclosure to the Prime Contractor.

The Government will validate formulas before RFQ release. A quoter that identifies a suspected formula, CLIN, quantity, or pricing-template error shall raise the issue through the RFQ question process by the questions deadline.

The Total Compensation Plan shall identify proposed salaries or direct labor compensation and fringe benefits sufficient to support the Government's assessment of the quoter's ability to recruit and retain qualified personnel throughout performance.

Subcontractors may submit proprietary Total Compensation Plans directly to the Contracting Officer and Contract Specialist by the quotation due date.

6.4 Additional Price Information

Certified cost or pricing data are not anticipated.

The Government may request data other than certified cost or pricing data when necessary to support a determination of price reasonableness, price balance, workforce-compensation adequacy, or other applicable price analysis.

6.5 Total Evaluated Price

The Total Evaluated Price will include:

- 1. Base-period pricing;
- 2. All option-period pricing; and
- 3. The evaluated value of the six-month extension under FAR 52.217-8

Quoters shall not submit unique labor rates for the six-month extension. For evaluation purposes, the Government will calculate the extension value using 50 percent of the final option-period pricing, consistent with the pricing template and the final solicitation schedule.

6.6 Mathematical Errors

In the event of a discrepancy between a unit price and an extended amount, the unit price shall govern. The Government may correct obvious arithmetic errors by recalculating extended amounts and the Total Evaluated Price using the stated unit prices.

7.0 Amendments and Quotation Revisions

Quoters are responsible for acknowledging all RFQ amendments.

If an amendment materially changes the RFQ, the Government may require revised quotations or may establish a revised quotation due date.

Evaluation Factors for Award

EVALUATION FACTORS FOR AWARD

1.0 General

The Government will evaluate timely quotations in accordance with the evaluation factors described in this section and will make one award to the responsible quoter whose quotation is determined to provide the best value to the Government.

This is a comparative commercial-services evaluation conducted under applicable RFO FAR Part 12 simplified acquisition procedures. The Government will not establish a formal competitive range or conduct a traditional FAR Part 15 source selection.

The Government may award without communications. The Government may communicate with quoters or request clarification of limited aspects of a quotation when determined necessary by the Contracting Officer and consistent with applicable simplified acquisition procedures. Quoters shall not assume that they will have an opportunity to revise their quotation after submission.

The Government will evaluate quotations using the following sequence:

1. Qualifying Criteria;
2. Technical Capability;
3. Past Performance; and
4. Price.

Qualifying Criteria will be evaluated on a Pass/Fail basis. A quotation that fails to satisfy a material qualifying criterion may be eliminated from further consideration.

The remaining evaluation factors are listed in descending order of importance:

1. Technical Capability;
2. Past Performance;
3. Price.

Technical Capability and Past Performance, when considered together, are more important than Price. However, the importance of Price will increase as quotations become more equal under the Technical Capability and Past Performance factors.

The Government will not award to a quotation with an unreasonable price, materially unbalanced pricing, an unacceptable technical rating, or an unacceptable workforce-compensation/retention risk.

2.0 Qualifying Criteria--Pass/Fail

The Government will evaluate Volume I to determine whether the quoter submitted the required administrative, security, cybersecurity, representations, certifications, and other qualifying information identified in Section L.

A quotation may be rated Fail and eliminated from further consideration when the quoter:

1. Fails to provide required representations, certifications, or solicitation fill-ins;
2. Takes exception to a material RFQ requirement;
3. Fails to provide required CMMC, SPRS, or cybersecurity information;
4. Fails to provide required security or DD254-related information;
5. Fails to acknowledge a material RFQ amendment; or
6. Otherwise fails to comply with a material qualifying criterion.

A Pass rating under Qualifying Criteria does not establish technical acceptability, responsibility, price reasonableness, or eligibility for award.

3.0 Factor I--Technical Capability

The Government will evaluate the quoter's demonstrated capability to perform the Direct Action Instructor Support requirement in accordance with the Statement of Work.

The Technical Capability factor will be evaluated using the following subfactors, listed in descending order of importance:

1. Staffing, Retention, and Key Personnel;
2. Transition and Mission Continuity;
3. Management, Safety, Quality Control, and Reporting; and
4. Materials and Ancillary Support, if included in the final RFQ.

Subfactors 2 and 3 are approximately equal in importance. Subfactor 4, if included, is less important than Subfactors 1 through 3.

The Government will evaluate the information submitted in Volume II, required key-personnel resumes, qualification cross-reference matrix, and any other relevant information available to the Government.

3.1 Subfactor I--Staffing, Retention, and Key Personnel

The Government will evaluate the quoter's ability to recruit, hire, validate, retain, and replace qualified personnel throughout the period of performance.

The evaluation will consider:

1. The quoter's access to qualified Direct Action, CQB, combat-marksmanship, range-safety, and tactical-instructor personnel;
2. The demonstrated process for validating SOW-required personnel qualifications;
3. The quality and credibility of the quoter's recruiting, retention, and backfill approach;
4. Historical staffing, retention, time-to-fill, and backfill information for similar work, if provided;
5. The availability and qualifications of the proposed Direct Action High-Risk Training Instructors;
6. The extent to which key-personnel resumes and qualification matrices demonstrate compliance with SOW minimum requirements;
7. The quoter's ability to provide qualified personnel on the first day of performance; and
8. The degree to which the approach reduces risk of vacancies, personnel turnover, qualification shortfalls, or mission disruption.

Failure of a proposed key person to meet a material SOW minimum qualification may result in a deficiency and an Unacceptable technical rating.

3.2 Subfactor II--Transition and Mission Continuity

The Government will evaluate the quoter's transition and day-one execution approach.

The evaluation will consider:

1. The credibility of the transition plan;
2. The ability to validate required personnel qualifications, security clearances, and installation-access requirements;
3. The process for transfer of work control and coordination with Government personnel;
4. The ability to sustain uninterrupted training operations during transition;
5. The process for managing staffing gaps, absences, attrition, and unanticipated personnel shortfalls;
6. The adequacy of identified transition risks and mitigation actions; and
7. The degree to which the approach reduces the risk of interruption to MRTC training operations.

3.3 Subfactor III--Management, Safety, Quality Control, and Reporting

The Government will evaluate the quoter's management approach for safe, continuous, and compliant performance of the requirement.

The evaluation will consider:

1. Management structure, authority, accountability, escalation procedures, and communication with Government personnel;
2. Live-fire, range, shoot-house, tactical-training, and instructor-safety procedures;
3. Methods for ensuring instructor currency and continued compliance with SOW qualification requirements;
4. Quality-control processes for identifying, tracking, correcting, and preventing performance problems;
5. Methods for preparing, validating, and submitting SOW-required reports;
6. Knowledge-capture and continuity-of-information processes;
7. Travel-management procedures, including accountability, approval, tracking, and compliance with FAR 31.205-46 and the Joint Travel Regulations; and
8. The ability to manage labor hours and resources within the final SOW and pricing-schedule structure.

3.4 Subfactor IV--Materials and Ancillary Support

The Government will evaluate the quoter's approach to obtaining, managing, tracking, quality-controlling, and timely delivering contractor-furnished materials and ancillary support required by the SOW.

The evaluation will consider supply-chain controls, procurement controls, quality controls, contingency planning, and the degree to which the approach reduces risk to training execution and mission continuity.

4.0 Technical Ratings

The Government will assign an overall Technical Capability rating based on the integrated assessment of the Technical Capability subfactors.

C o l o r	Adjectiv al Rating	Description
Bl ue	Outstandi ng	The quotation demonstrates an exceptional approach and thorough understanding of the requirements. It contains multiple strengths or at least one significant strength, and the risk of unsuccessful performance is low.
P ur pl e	Good	The quotation demonstrates a thorough approach and understanding of the requirements. It contains at least one strength or significant strength, and the risk of unsuccessful performance is low to moderate.

Green	Acceptable	The quotation demonstrates an adequate approach and understanding of the requirements. The risk of unsuccessful performance is no greater than moderate.
Yellow	Marginal	The quotation does not demonstrate an adequate approach or understanding of one or more requirements, and/or the risk of unsuccessful performance is high.
Red	Unacceptable	The quotation fails to meet one or more material requirements, contains one or more deficiencies, or presents an unacceptable risk of unsuccessful performance. An Unacceptable quotation is ineligible for award.

4.1 Technical Evaluation Definitions

The following definitions apply to the Government's Technical Capability evaluation:

Strength: A feature of the quotation that exceeds a stated requirement or provides a meaningful benefit to the Government during contract performance.

Significant Strength: A feature of the quotation that appreciably exceeds a stated requirement or provides a material benefit to the Government in safety, staffing reliability, transition readiness, mission continuity, or reduced Government oversight.

Weakness: A feature of the quotation that increases the risk of unsuccessful performance.

Significant Weakness: A feature of the quotation that appreciably increases the risk of unsuccessful performance.

Deficiency: A material failure of a quotation to meet a Government requirement, or a combination of significant weaknesses that creates an unacceptable risk of unsuccessful performance.

Risk: The potential for unsuccessful performance, including disruption to training schedules, degradation of training quality, inadequate staffing, safety issues, increased Government oversight, or failure to meet mission requirements.

5.0 Factor II--Past Performance

The Government will evaluate the recency, relevancy, quality, and risk associated with the quoter's past performance.

The Government may consider information submitted by the quoter as well as information obtained from CPARS, FAPIIS, customer references, Government records, and other relevant sources.

The Government will assess whether the quoter's past performance demonstrates a reasonable expectation that the quoter will successfully perform the MRTC Direct Action Instructor Support requirement.

5.1 Recency

Past performance is recent when it was performed in whole or in part during the five years preceding the quotation due date and includes at least six months of performance.

5.2 Relevancy

The Government will assess the similarity of prior work to the current requirement in terms of scope, magnitude, complexity, personnel qualifications, tactical instruction, safety requirements, security environment, staffing, transition, and mission continuity.

Relevancy Rating	Description
Very Relevant	Present or past performance involved essentially the same scope, magnitude, complexity, and performance risk as the current requirement.
Relevant	Present or past performance involved similar scope, magnitude, complexity, and performance risk as the current requirement.
Somewhat Relevant	Present or past performance involved some of the scope, magnitude, complexity, or performance risk of the current requirement.

Not Relevant	Present or past performance involved little or none of the scope, magnitude, complexity, or performance risk of the current requirement.
--------------	--

5.3 Past Performance Confidence Ratings

Confidence Rating	Description
Substantial Confidence	Based on the quoter's recent and relevant performance record, the Government has a high expectation that the quoter will successfully perform the requirement.
Satisfactory Confidence	Based on the quoter's recent and relevant performance record, the Government has a reasonable expectation that the quoter will successfully perform the requirement.
Neutral Confidence	No recent and relevant performance record is available, or the performance record is too limited to support a meaningful confidence assessment. The quoter will not be evaluated favorably or unfavorably.
Limited Confidence	Based on the quoter's recent and relevant performance record, the Government has a low expectation that the quoter will successfully perform the requirement.
No Confidence	Based on the quoter's recent and relevant performance record, the Government has no expectation that the quoter will successfully perform the requirement.

6.0 Factor III--Price

The Government will evaluate the Total Evaluated Price of each quotation.

The Total Evaluated Price will include:

1. Base-period pricing;
2. All option-period pricing; and
3. The evaluated value of the six-month extension under FAR 52.217-8, if included in the final RFQ.

The Government will evaluate price for:

1. Mathematical accuracy;
2. Completeness;
3. Reasonableness;
4. Balance among CLINs, labor categories, and periods of performance; and
5. Workforce-compensation and retention risk.

6.1 Price Reasonableness

The Government will evaluate whether the proposed price is fair and reasonable using one or more price-analysis techniques, including comparison with:

- Other quotations;
- The Independent Government Cost Estimate;
- Historical prices;
- Market research;
- Labor-market information;
- Published commercial pricing, if applicable; and
- Other relevant price information.

A quotation with an unreasonable price may be ineligible for award.

6.2 Price Balance

The Government will evaluate whether prices are materially unbalanced among labor categories, CLINs, travel, materials, option periods, and the FAR 52.217-8 extension period.

A quotation may be determined unacceptable when it contains materially unbalanced pricing that creates unacceptable risk to the Government.

6.3 Workforce Compensation and Retention Assessment

The Government will evaluate the Workforce Compensation Plan, price narrative, direct labor rates, fringe benefits, escalation, total compensation, and fully burdened labor rates to assess whether the quoter's proposed compensation is credible and sufficient to recruit and retain personnel with the specialized qualifications required by the SOW.

The Government will consider:

- 1. Direct labor compensation;
- 2. Fringe benefits;
- 3. Total compensation;
- 4. Labor-rate escalation;
- 5. Fully burdened labor rates;
- 6. Historical and market compensation information;
- 7. The qualifications and availability of proposed key personnel; and
- 8. The effect of proposed compensation on staffing, retention, backfill, safety, mission continuity, and performance risk.

The Government will not adjust a quoter's proposed price for realism.

However, if the Government determines that the Workforce Compensation Plan is unsupported, internally inconsistent, or does not demonstrate a credible ability to recruit and retain the qualified workforce required for successful performance, the Government may assess performance risk under the Price factor or determine the quotation unacceptable.

7.0 Best-Value Determination

The Contracting Officer will make an integrated comparative assessment of the quotations under the stated evaluation factors.

The Government is not required to select the lowest-priced quotation. The Government may select a higher-priced quotation when the Contracting Officer determines that the quotation's documented technical capability, reduced performance risk, staffing reliability, transition readiness, safety approach, and/or past-performance advantages provide benefits that justify the additional price.

No rating, confidence assessment, or price alone guarantees award.

The award decision will document the basis for selecting the quotation that provides the best value to the Government, including the comparative benefits and risks of the selected quotation and the reasonableness of any associated price premium.
