MEMORANDUM FOR: DETERMINATION FOR RESTRICTING COMPETITION

SUBJECT: Only One Available Source

1. References: Revolutionary FAR Overhaul (RFO) Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) 12.102, Restricting Competition.

2. Program: Maintenance Diesel Laptops.

3. Requiring Activity: [redacted].

4. Contracting Activity: U.S. Army Mission and Installation Contracting Command - Fort Belvoir (MICC – Fort Belvoir), 9410 Jackson Loop, B1425, Fort Belvoir, VA 22060.

5. Description of Action: [redacted] – Belvoir requests approval to award a sole source Firm-Fixed-Priced (FFP) purchase to [redacted]. The Government projects award for 29 September 2026 as Fiscal Year 2026 OMA funds will be used. The base year of the contract will be fully funded by [redacted]

6. Description of Supplies/Services: This action is for the procurement of [redacted] heavy-duty diagnostic systems, software, and support services [redacted] The procurement includes the acquisition of their comprehensive all-in-one diagnostic kits [redacted] bundle with software, repair information and technical support. The National Industry Classification System (NAICS) code selected is 811210, Electronic and Precision Equipment Repair and Maintenance

7. Reason for Restricting Competition: [redacted] is the OEM of The [redacted]. No other source is capable of providing this integrated multi-brand diagnostic ecosystem.

8. Market Research: Market research was performed by the Contract Specialist from 27 August 2026 15 September 2026. The following market research techniques were used:

[redacted]

[redacted]

- SBA Dynamic Small Business was searched on 15 September 2026. There are 268 small businesses in DC, MD, or VA, SBA certified as 8(a) or 8(a) JV, HUBZone, WOSB, EDWOSB, VOSB, or SDVOSB, and designated small in NAICS code(s) 811210.

- AbilityOne Procurement List was searched on 31 August 2026. There are zero small businesses available for this supply.

- NASA Solutions for Enterprise-Wide Procurement website was searched on 24 August 2026. There was not an authorized reseller for the Heavy Duty Diagnostic Systems, Software, and Support Services [redacted]

9. Small Business: This acquisition will be awarded as a sole source award due to only one responsible source.

811210 Electronic and Precision Equipment Repair and Maintenance is an eligible NAICS code that qualifies for the women's contracting program. More specifically, NAICS Code 811210 qualifies for the Women-Owned Small Business (WOSB) contracting program. However, there is not a reasonable expectation that two or more WOSB businesses are capable, and this acquisition will be a sole source to an other than small company.

There are 268 small businesses in DC, MD, or VA, SBA certified as 8(a) or 8(a) JV, HUBZone, WOSB, EDWOSB, VOSB, or SDVOSB, and designated small in NAICS code(s) 811210.

The required supply is not suitable for competition due to [redacted]s the OEM for the Heavy Duty Diagnostic Systems, Software, and Support Services [redacted]

10. Pricing Factors: [redacted], found on the company's website, was utilized and compared with the IGE that was prepared by the Contracting Officer's Technical Representative [redacted] was developed by utilizing the average cost unit, based on figures previously received by the vendor.

11. Responsibility: System for Award Management (SAM) has been reviewed to verify:

- SAM registration is active with an expiration date of 09 Dec 2026.
- The contractor is not listed in the SAM Exclusions; and,
- The contractor's Unique Entity Identifier (UEI) number, Commercial and Government Entity (CAGE) code, name, and physical address are accurately reflected in the contract document.

[redacted]

A copy of timely SAM verification, dated 09 Dec 2026, is in the PCF file.

12. Conclusion: Based on the above findings, the Contracting Officer has determined that awarding the contract to [redacted] to be the most advantageous method of fulfilling the Government's needs. Due to the restricted competition for this requirement, it is in the best interest of the Government to award this contract action as a sole source contract to [redacted]
